

volunteers in battery A, was a pleasant social affair this week. A nice luncheon was served and a collection of $11 was taken up to aid the mother in paying her expenses to Salt Lake to meet her son.

The Mantel Mill company will give an exhibition drill at the military ball at the opera house tonight.

Rev. J. M. Hansen was to Richfield to hold conference Friday.

Olaf Thorsby and Merinus Simonsen visited the county capital, the first of the week.

Ole Larsen and wife visited friends in Mayfield the first of the week.

George A. Whitlock of Mayfield was in town Tuesday.

Ed Conrad was over from Chester the last of the week.

M. Y. Weaver of Salt Lake City is here in the interest of the Utah Volunteer History association.

Miss Aurelia Nelson will leave for Salt Lake City Sunday.

Mrs. Stena Wall of Willow Bend, Beaver county, is visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Marion Dorris will leave for Clear Creek tomorrow to visit her sister.

At Candland in town again, talking up the beauties of Oregon.

J. N. Jacobson was in Mt. Pleasant the first of the week.

Henry Oviatt and wife of Cleveland, Emery county, are guests of Charles Whitlock's family this week.

A party of young people went up into the mountains yesterday for an outing. They expect to be gone about a week.

A strike party was given in honor of Mrs. L. Oviatt and Mrs. L. Oviatt's son, who were in the city this week at the residence of Barney Stevens. A pleasant time was had by those who attended.

RICHFIELD SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Richfield, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Elizabeth Ence returned to Salt Lake last Friday, after a visit here with relatives.

Mrs. M. A. Lang returned to the city Saturday, after a week's visit here.

Mrs. Jones, mother of G. M. Jones of this place, who has been visiting with her son's family since April, returned to Salt Lake Saturday.

Mrs. C. M. Gougeon returned to Mt. Pleasant Saturday after a pleasant week's visit here.

Rev. E. E. Mork went to Mt. Pleasant last Saturday to attend to the reopening of the M. E. mission there.

Wilby Douglas has returned to the city.

J. N. Erickson, county attorney, left for Millard and Beaver counties last week to try and effect a settlement between those counties and Sevier as to disputes over transient herds tax which the two counties claim.

Miss Carrie Poulson returned last week from a visit to Fillmore and other Millard county towns.

Miss Mary Hougaard of Mant is visiting with friends here.

Julius Weatherbeau, a representative of the Kansas city stock yards, was in Richfield this week looking after stock purchases.

W. H. Seegmiller and J. S. Hepler returned Sunday from Kanab, where they went from Fish Lake to attend the funeral of Mr. Seegmiller's brother, Dan, who was shot by William Rounley. They did not reach Kanab in time for the service.

Mrs. J. J. Stewart returned home Sunday from Salt Lake, where she has been for several weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Alice Peterson has returned from Salina.

George Ogilvie left Sunday for Spanish Fork and other Utah county towns on a visit to relatives.

E. A. Thompson and wife of Circleville arrived in Richfield Sunday, and the following morning Mrs. Thompson left for Salt Lake, where she will be joined later by her husband, who is detained on business matters.

John Swenson and Joseph Jensen of the Provo Y. V. A. were in Richfield Sunday and made address at the opera house, in the afternoon on educational matters.

W. F. Mitchell, the Colorado river mining man, arrived from Salt Lake Monday and is spending the week here, previous to another departure for the river beds.

Mrs. Della Campbell of Beaver is here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. G. H. Herber.

George Hansen has gone to Elsinore, and it is probable he will remain there.

Professor O. J. Call went to Salina on Tuesday in the interest of the high school.

Miss Pearl Allen went to Gunnison and back Wednesday.

Miss Josie Taylor, the telegraph operator, returned Monday after a visit of several weeks in Millard and Garfield counties.

Mrs. O. J. Call came home from Heber City Wednesday, where she has been for a month visiting her mother.

John Lawson, the "Terrible Swede," and his family, presented "The Omen" Wednesday evening at the opera house, with Mr. Lawson in the title role. The presentation was fairly good. The company will play a return engagement tomorrow evening.

J. M. Lohdahl, associate editor of the Deseret News, will spend a portion of a week's vacation with relatives here.

Parley Magleby has been doing missionary work in California for two years, returned to his home in Monroe last week. His sister, Clara, who went to the coast to meet him, returned with him.

Allen Montgomery left yesterday with William Rowe on a three weeks' trip through southern Utah.

J. M. Peterson and Arthur Hepler are out on a fishing trip.

C. O. Hoffman, prosecuting attorney of Carbon county, arrived in Richfield Monday and in company with his brother, E. E. Hoffman, made a visit to the Gold Mountain mines. They are interested in the Annie Laura mine.

Dr. W. M. Griffith is spending a few days at Gold Mountain.

LOGAN SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Logan, Aug. 4.—A great many of Logan's society people are now enjoying their annual outing in the hills. Professors Swendsen and Jensen of the A. C. Attorney Nebeker and R. S. McAllister, with their wives and families, comprise an inner party by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ramey.

George W. Thatcher was a capital visitor during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hendricksen returned Tuesday from a recreative trip through Bear Lake county, Idaho, and Star Valley, Wyoming.

Alvin Crockett came home from Bear Lake county on Monday, where he spent several weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. G. Gowans, wife of Dr. Gowans, is visiting relatives in Provo.

Miss Emma Hyde of this city spent part of the week visiting in Salt Lake.

Freud Kern, an Omaha business man, is visiting his old classmates, A. H. Thompson and Logan. He spent part of this week in the canyon and enjoyed himself thoroughly. He is delighted with Utah.

Professor W. H. Apperley returned on Sunday from San Francisco, where he spent his vacation in study.

Miss F. O'Driscoll of Denver is visiting in Logan. She is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kiesel.

Mrs. Daniel Bartholomew and daughter of Salt Lake visited Mr. Bartholomew, who is employed here this week.

The Jeppesen orchestra gives a big ball at the park resort tonight.

Miss Della Torrence came home Tuesday from a pleasant visit with Salt Lake friends.

Rev. Mr. Plummer of Elko, Nev., is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. U. P. Hodrick.

Rev. E. E. Mork of Richfield spent a couple of days of this week in Logan and Hyrum as the guest of Revs. Wasson and Hanson.

Rev. George E. Jayne of Provo was in the city the first of the week.

J. Albert Johnson and wife are at home again after spending a two weeks' outing at the John Darr ranch in Blacksmith Fork canyon.

Ex-Sheriff Turner and family have just concluded a pleasant outing in Blacksmith Fork canyon.

Miss Emma Kwikley returned this week from a visit to Chicago and other eastern cities.

EVANSTON SOCIETY.

Evansville, Wyo., Aug. 4.—Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Kaster's home was the scene of a brilliant gathering of ladies called together in honor of Mrs. A. H. Kahn, of Evanston. A delicious menu was served at 6 o'clock, the tables being waited upon by young ladies in white and the following was very much enjoyed by all present: Hot rolls, yeast loaf, cold ham, mushroom patties, creamed potatoes, tomato salad, olives, salted almonds, coffee, pineapple sherbet, ice cream, macaroni and assorted cake. During the afternoon part of a candle was lit and each lady guessed the length of time it would burn. The first prize falling to Mrs. C. D. Clark, a Dresden candlestick and candle. The house and tables were beautifully decorated with flowers, pinks, sweet peas and California poppies being used in profusion. Those present were Mesdames Charles Stone, W. J. and J. E. Caslin, Goodman, McKenna, Winslow, Soler, Berenson, Booth, Blyth, Drew, Chapman, Pexton, Clark, M. W. Foote and Robinson, O'Brien, Putnam, Levers, Collier and Miss Caslin of Red Canyon, Mesdames Hanson and Lewis of Salt Lake, Mesdames Kuhn of Ogden and John Stone of Indianapolis.

Mrs. A. A. Bailey and son arrived Friday morning after an absence of two years in Seattle.

Major F. M. Foote of company H, First Wyoming Infantry, arrived home on sick leave Friday and was met at the train by old friends and given a hearty welcome. The major looks thin, but is fast recovering his strength since leaving the Philippines. He will go back to San Francisco about the first of September, to be mustered out with his company on their arrival.

Mrs. Orlando Norton stopped off in our city for a few days on her way to Colorado and from there she goes to Palo Alto in a short time to make that city her future residence.

Dave Leavitt and a friend from Salt Lake are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Gottstein.

John Dykins of Randolph has been in the city for the past few days visiting his wife at the home of Thomas Blyth. Mrs. Dykins is slowly improving.

Miss Ramsey of Salt Lake is visiting relatives in the city and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Arnold.

Our surrounding towns and country were well represented at the day and night merchants as well as circus managers were made glad.

Bert Mowbray and Fred Sheldon, two of the boys in the signal service at Manila, visited friends in our city last Monday and Tuesday.

A very quiet evening occurred at the Methodist parsonage last Tuesday evening. The contracting parties were Mr. Charles Mack in connection with the Union Pacific railroad and Miss Martha Vigen of this city. They left for Ogden on the midnight train which city will be their future home.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Ole Bergstrom entertained a number of friends at tea. Her home was profusely decorated with sweet peas, pinks, roses and other flowers and was a bower of beauty. Delicacies were served consisting of bread and butter, cold ham and tomato pickles, Saratoga chips, salted almonds, salad, coffee, ice cream and cake and through enjoyed by all.

Those present were Mrs. John Stone and daughter of Indianapolis, Miss Ramsey of Salt Lake, Mrs. Robinson of Ogden, Mrs. Putnam, Mrs. Kuhn, Mrs. Blyth, Mrs. Caslin of Red Canyon, Mesdames Roth, Heffrich, Kaster, McKenna, Blyth, Booth, Stone, Otto, Arnold, Peterson, Shepherd, Goodman, Bristol, Hills, W. J. and J. E. Caslin, Winslow, M. W. Foote, Pexton, Pexton, Schram, Richardson, Priest and Misses Peterson, Webster and Shepherd.

Mrs. Jake Gottstein entertained Wednesday evening in honor of her brother, Mr. David Leavitt and his friends. Dancing, games and music were indulged in and a very pleasant time was passed. Delicacies were served during the evening. Those present were Mesdames Roberts, Peterson, Smith, Kimball, Dufford, Harrison, Winslow, Stone, Blyth, Ida Foote, Downs, McKenna, Blackman, Keith, Volmer, Mowbray, Alget, Williams, Harrison, Hamilton, Gunnell, Durnford, Moore, and Mesdames Schram, Richardson, Priest and Misses Peterson, Webster and Shepherd.

Miss Grace Crocker of Ogden arrived in the city Thursday evening and is the guest of Mrs. D. H. Clark.

Mrs. Robbins of Ogden is the guest of Mrs. Hudson Hillard.

The friends of Mrs. F. M. Grady will be sorry to know that she is again on the sick bed.

Mrs. C. D. Clark has old time friends visiting her.

Mrs. Abe Kuhn and daughter Daisy who had been guests of Mrs. I. Kaster, left Saturday for their Ogden home.

Mrs. L. N. Putnam and Mrs. David O'Brien returned yesterday and gave a delightful treat at the home of Mrs. Putnam Thursday afternoon at which a large number of our society ladies were present. Musical selections were rendered by Miss Lewis of Salt Lake and Miss Blyth of Evansville. A delicious menu was heartily enjoyed. Olives, almonds, hot rolls, scalloped chicken, potato chips, tomato jelly, bread and butter, chicken salad, salted wafers, pineapple sherbet, raspberries and cream, vanilla and nut ice cream and assorted cake and coffee were served in six courses. The fortunate ones were Mesdames Bergstrom, Goodman, Winslow, Soler, Berenson, Booth, Blyth, Drew, Chapman, Pexton, Clark, M. W. Foote and Robinson, O'Brien, Putnam, Levers, Collier and Miss Caslin of Red Canyon, Mesdames Hanson and Lewis of Salt Lake, Mesdames Kuhn of Ogden and John Stone of Indianapolis.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Evans on Thursday afternoon with a large number present. Ice cream, pineapple sherbet and cake were served.

Mrs. Dundell of Texas and an aunt of Mrs. L. K. Lehto arrived Wednesday evening and will remain several days.

LEHI SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Lehi, Aug. 4.—The young ladies and gentlemen Sunday school teachers here given a lawn party by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Broadbent at their residence. A large company was present, over seventy in all. The lawn was lighted up very prettily, and refreshments were served during the evening.

Bishop Madsen of Gunnison, Sanpete county, was the guest of T. R. Cutler for a day or two.

Mrs. Barbara Bush and family, also Mrs. Plun and family, are spending a week in American Fork canyon.

James M. Kirkham was a visitor in Salt Lake City.

G. Harris of Provo was the guest of F. W. Kirkham this week.

Mrs. L. Decker of Salt Lake City and Mrs. Thayer of San Francisco are the guests of Mrs. J. S. Broadbent.

Emil Lutzer of Switzerland was a visitor in Lehi this week.

Mrs. William Chisum of American

Fork spent a day or two with her parents in Lehi, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Trane.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith of Cedar Fort made a call on Mrs. A. Knudsen.

J. J. Thomas and Walter Higgs of Fish Springs are in Lehi visiting their friends.

Mr. Joseph W. Coates has returned from California, where he has been for about twenty months.

Mrs. Julia Brown, Mrs. C. Minna and Mrs. Lettie Oviatt are spending the week with friends in Spanish Fork.

John Beck, Jr. and family of Salt Lake are spending a few days at their country home near the Saratoga Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Welsh, agent of the Rio Grande Western, have returned from their pleasure trip to the east.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harwood of Salt Lake City are spending a few days with their parents.

W. F. Welsh, Valentine and James Harwood, are rustication in American Fork canyon.

A. E. Hyde, Jr., spent an evening in Lehi.

Barbara Ferguson and family of Salt Lake City are rustication at the Saratoga Springs for a week.

PAYSON SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Payson, Aug. 3.—Mr. A. S. Hulse began work on his new building Saturday, which is to be rushed forward until completed.

Mayor J. S. Perry went to Castilia Springs Thursday to spend a week for his health.

The Utah county teachers held their summer institute at Castilia Springs on Aug. 14 to 16. Half fare will be given over the Rio Grande Western.

Leslie and Genesee Spence, children of W. G. Spence of Salt Lake, will return home on Monday next.

Mr. Frank McHaffon proposes to make a dancing pavilion of the opera house by removing the stage.

Dr. Wade went to the capital on Wednesday on business.

Dyke Fillmore came home from the camp Wednesday with his foot badly cut while cutting wood.

J. S. Page went to his mines in Tintic Thursday.

J. C. Donelson and wife went up to Salt Lake after visiting here a week.

A. H. Kimball, the enterprising salesman of Clark, Edridge & Co., was here Wednesday.

Mrs. Salina Clayton went to Salt Lake Wednesday for three or four months.

Miss Ida Coombs will leave for Dublin, Mexico, next Thursday, to engage as a school teacher for the year.

Mrs. Helen Guthrie and daughter Cora, went to Salt Lake Tuesday for the week.

Miss Jane Wilson and Mrs. Gatewood went to Salt Lake on the excursion Tuesday.

Mr. F. D. Hulse came home from the north Monday to stay a few days before going south.

John C. Edwards of Salt Lake was here Monday.

Mrs. J. S. Page, Jr., gave a lawn party last Monday night to her friends, Chinese lanterns and colored illuminations made the grounds look pleasant and the jolly crowd passed a pleasant time until late in the night.

John C. Graham of Provo was here on business Monday.

T. E. Hinchey returned from San Francisco on Monday.

Miss Ida Coombs went to Provo Monday and Mrs. Emma Simon came to Payson. They exchanged telegraph offices for a week.

Mr. Maurice Gradywood from Seattle, Wash., was here Wednesday on business.

Miss May Stark, Miss Reynolds, and Mr. Guy Wilson left for Dublin, Mex., Tuesday.

Miss Lulu Stark returned from Moab where she has been visiting her brother and family for the past eight months.

Mrs. J. H. Greer of Chicago, and two daughters, returned to her sister, Mrs. Page, Mrs. Colvin and her many relatives.

Messrs. Done and Archibald will open a bicycle shop at Provo on the 15th instant.

Quite a crowd of youngsters went fishing to Utah lake on Friday in charge of Mrs. Stark and had an enjoyable time.

LAKETOWN NEWS.

Interesting Items From That Rich County Center.

(Special Correspondence.)

Laketown, July 3.—Joseph Weston preached his farewell discourse at the Latter-day Saints on Sunday, and departed via Logan to Salt Lake from whence he will sail August 6 for missionary service in his native England. He has been county commissioner, is one of the directors of Laketown Co-op. Laketown Canal company and has magnified the office of counselor to Bishop H. N. Nebeker for nearly two decades.

Mrs. Julia P. Lindsey, the stake president of Relief society, met with Mesdames Hart and Bagley met with and gave admonition to the local "Mothers in Mourning."

State Representative Stewart of Salt Lake's fourth precinct, has been rustication in our valley, visiting relatives and sampling candy at the home and establishment of the Hon. R. S. Cook, the irrepressible "man from Rich."

C. F. Olsen of Hyrum, Cache county, has been "doing an" in the mountains, selling Robertson's Geographic Historical charts, and meeting with much success.

Aquila Nebeker's sheep camp foreman, John C. Leavitt, is in the mountains, tending of Meadowsview on Sunday evening—cause: the dying camp fire got tamed up with some dry brush.

James Oaker of Randolph is metapho. rically and usually in the saddle, carrying the United States mail between Evansville and Fish Lake.

Our former fellow townsman Elder Alfred W. Nebeker and family are over from Randolph visiting Grandma Mary Nebeker and the numerous relatives and friends hereabouts.

Mrs. Isaac Dwyer, wife of one of Evansville's bustling merchants, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Lamborn and Mrs. James Anderson, and is accompanied by Mr. Brooks of the Twenty-third ward of Zion's church. They enjoy our scenes, associations, lake and surroundings very much.

EUREKA SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)

Eureka, Aug. 4.—Miss Sadie McCune, who has been the guest of Miss Katie Hickman for the past month, has returned to her home in Nephi.

Joel Jennifer came up from Provo this week and, in company with Attorney Stott of this place, will begin the practice of law.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Driscoll spent Tuesday in the capital.

The Tintic Athletic association will run an excursion to Castilia Aug. 12.

Miss Emma Madsen of Nephi is visiting her sister here.

John Hupfer and wife were Salt Lake visitors last Tuesday.

Mark McChrystal of Salt Lake was in town several days this week. While here he was the guest of J. H. and Jackson McChrystal.

Miss Belle Monahan of Provo has been rustication with the Misses Dusenberry during the past week.

Miss Lorena Dusenberry concluded a month's visit with relatives in Salt

Lake and returned home Tuesday. She was accompanied by Miss Pike, who will be her guest for a couple of weeks.

Miss Bertha Hills visited Salt Lake Tuesday.

Will Beck is again in Eureka, after a short absence in the metropolis.

John J. Harper and wife were in the valley on a short pleasure trip this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McChrystal were in Salt Lake City the first part of the week.

Mrs. George Hodgins, who was the guest of Mrs. W. W. Old in Salt Lake this week, has returned.

John Taylor and wife were at Payson Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. P. J. Reagan and her sister, Mrs. Richard Mulholland, of Butte, are the guests of Mrs. Sheehan.

Mrs. T. Holland has returned from Colorado.

Miss Annie Pike of Provo is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pike.

Miss Blanche Davis is with friends at Provo.

Mrs. W. S. Earle came out from Salt Lake City the first part of this week and will reside here.

Mrs. Dr. Campbell of Pioche, Nev., is visiting with Mrs. Frank Cook.

Miss Cora Dusenberry is visiting the family of Senator Whitney at Salt Lake.

J. F. Wright has been over from Nephi several days this week on business.

Miss Hazel Kohl of Nephi is the guest of Miss Elodia Mangum.

Owen Dusenberry of the Eureka hotel is back, after a five days' business and pleasure trip in the city.

Emerson Pennell and Mary Gould, both of this place, were granted a license to wed Tuesday.

Judge Watt of this capital is in camp, shaking hands with old acquaintances. The judge was formerly a resident of Tintic district.

There was a dance at Knightsville Wednesday evening, being well attended by Eureka people.

Miss Addie Mee of San Bernardino, Cal., has accepted a position with the Bullion-Best store.

Miss Jennie Mason arrived here Wednesday, after a short absence in the capital.

Agent Stack of the Oregon Short Line railway took a lay-off this week, visiting Salt Lake. He was accompanied by Mrs. Stack and the children.

Messrs. Fred Hook and M. Kopp, accompanied by their families, are rustication in the district. The gentlemen are looking after mining interests, while the ladies are trying camp life.

Miss Mildred Paxman, who has been visiting friends in Salt Lake and Provo for several weeks, returned Tuesday evening.

F. C. Goodman, formerly of Eureka, looked over the district during the week. Mr. Goodman is at present located in De Lamar.

Captain George Ryan was in the capital last Tuesday.

"Tim" Sullivan made a flying trip to Zion Wednesday.

Mrs. A. Robbins is sojourning with Mrs. J. H. McChrystal.

Miss Hattie Barker is staying with friends here.

PROVO SOCIETY.

Provo, Aug. 5.—A very delightful farewell reception was given the Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Andrews Monday evening by the members of the Baptist church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Enos. The reception was a complete surprise, and was especially pleasing in having the presence, almost without exception, of every member of the church.